Vulnerability to modern slavery

How vulnerable a country’s people are to modern slavery is dependent on a range of factors which reflect the strength of governance, access to basic needs, inequality, disenfranchised groups, and effects of conflict. On a scale of 0 to 100, with 100 being the highest vulnerability to modern slavery, Cambodia is rated as 58 and has above average vulnerability for the region. Vulnerability is highest in terms of disenfranchised groups.

Priority Recommendations for the government of Cambodia

1

Increase the legal age of marriage for males and females to 18 years without exceptions.

2

Ensure support services are available for all victims of modern slavery, regardless of gender, age, nationality, or sexuality.

3

Remove laws or policies that prevent or make it difficult for workers to leave abusive employers without risking loss of their visa, deportation, and/or loss of security deposits.
