Vulnerability to modern slavery

How vulnerable a country's people are to modern slavery is dependent on a range of factors which reflect the strength of governance, access to basic needs, inequality, disenfranchised groups, and effects of conflict. On a scale of 0 to 100, with 100 being the highest vulnerability to modern slavery, Burkina Faso is rated as 56 and has below average vulnerability for the region. Vulnerability is highest in terms of effects of conflict.

Priority Recommendations for the government of Burkina Faso

- 1 Increase the legal age of marriage for males and females to 18 years without exceptions.
- 2 Ensure support services are available for all victims of modern slavery, regardless of gender, age, nationality, or sexuality.
- 3 Enact legislation recognising that victims should not be treated as criminals for conduct that occurred while under control of their exploiter and ensure the law is enforced.
