Vulnerability to modern slavery
How vulnerable a country’s people are to modern slavery is dependent on a range of factors which reflect the strength of governance, access to basic needs, inequality, disenfranchised groups, and effects of conflict. On a scale of 0 to 100, with 100 being the highest vulnerability, Uganda is rated as 62 and has below average vulnerability for the region. Vulnerability is highest in terms of lack of basic needs.

Priority Recommendations for the government of Uganda

1. Criminalise commercial sexual exploitation of children in line with international conventions.
2. Increase the legal age of marriage for males and females to 18 years without exceptions.
3. Enforce legislation recognising that victims should not be treated as criminals for conduct that occurred while under control of their exploiter.
